SCORES LIQUOR TRAFFIC IN OHIO

Says Democrats Are in League With So-Called Liberal Interests in State

RAPS BOTH OLD PARTIES

Points to Progressive Platform as Only Solution to Political Ills

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 28.—To an audience that filled Memorial hall and overflowed into the streets for nearly a block in every direction, Col. Theodore Roosevelt tonight denounced the liquor traffic and urged the voters to support the Progressive party in its second annual campaign against the amendment originated by the so-called "liberal interests" in this state.

He asserted that the Democratic party in Ohio was in league with the liquor interests in the present state campaign and charged the Republican party with attempting to carry favor with both the wets and the dries.

Plays Old Parties.

Colonel Roosevelt criticized the old parties as "fossilized," found little saving efficiency and competence in their programs affecting labor, combinations and the tariff, and pointed to the Progressive platform as the only one showing the way to the reform.

The old parties, he said, cannot and will not deal with new ideas in adequate fashion.

"They know that if they put the life of the new ideas into the old bodies of their organizations these old organizations would burst asunder," he said. "The attitude of the present administration on the tariff and trusts he described as fitting to hit it if it is a bear and to hug it if it is a calf."

Opposes State Ownership.

The colonel explained his opposition to state ownership in most industries as follows: "The state is not a business organization. It is a government. The distribution of the mails, water and light, he said, fall naturally within the province of the state, but in general state regulation and supervision were to be preferred to state ownership.

"My own recent experience in traveling on a state-owned railroad in England, and in using the state-owned telephone in England, impressed me with the marked comparative superiority in service rendered by our own private-owned railroads and telephones, but I am informed that in Belgium the direct reverse obtains," he said.

In pleading for an untrammelled tariff commission, the speaker declared that the Democratic revision was hampered in the same manner that the Aldrich-Vreeland adjustment was by the conflict of sectional and partisan interests.

"We are a great nation," he asserted, "and we must think nationally and act nationally."

Colonel Roosevelt pointed to the plan.

CHILDREN OF U.S. TO ASK RULERS OF EUROPE TO END GREAT WAR NOW RAGING

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—A letter to the children of the United States, asking them to sign a petition to the rulers of the warring nations in Europe, and asking peace, was issued today by the Children's Peace League committee, with the approval of the board of managers of the International Federation of Women's Clubs.

CITY OF LOUVAIN

State Fern Pompeii

RUIN AND DEVIATION ON EVERY HAND

Prof. Gilson Paints Graphic Picture of Tragedy to Art and Science

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—A graphic description of the wreck and devastation of the ancient city of Louvain, Belgium, is given by Prof. E. Gilson of the University of Louvain, in a letter to the Belgian minister of justice, Henry Carton de Wiart, one of the Belgian high commissioners who recently presented a statement of Belgium's case to President Wilson. The letter is as follows:

"I entered the city, coming from Tervuren. Reaching at Berchem, I saw numerous burnt and crumbling houses. The nearer you come to the gloomy and silent city the more their number. I pass through the Saint-Espirit street, the Saint-Jacques square and Brussels street, where only a few houses are in ruins, although most of them are sacked and pillaged.

Smoking Heap of Ruins.

"At the Sept-Orme Louvain reveals itself in my eyes like a luminous panorama in the glade of a forest. The center of the city is a smoking heap of ruins. Houses are caved in, nothing remains but smoking ruins and a mass of brick. It is a veritable Pompeii. But how much more tragic and vivid is the sight of this new Pompeii. An oppressive silence everywhere. Everybody has fled; at the windows of cellars I see frightened faces and at the street corners Prussian sentinels, scowling, immobile and silent.

"In the center stands the walls of St. Peter's, now a grinning skeleton, roof and bell tower, the walls blackened and caved in. In front stands the Hotel de Ville, dominating everything, destroyed except for the arcade of its pillars of the hall de la pesse. The library and its treasures are entirely gone.

Dangerous to Enter.

"Entering at Peters by the Rue de Malines, I find what was the big hall among the ruins. The vaults are for all most part caved in; there is a continuous stream of falling stones. The Rue de Malines is a veritable mine of death. The Rue de la Station is a heap of ruins, bricks, scrap iron and charred beams; no trace of a sidewalk is visible and from the ruins the most disgusting odors are rising and enveloping everything. Rue de la Station is entirely burnt, but the front of the modern houses have resisted the fire and the sight there is not as tragic as elsewhere. I now approach the statue of Just-Lipse; everything burnt.

Desolation on Every Hand.

"The house of David Alenbach and the house of Mr. Desaghe have fallen to pieces, and the Rue Louis-Nelsons everything is destroyed. The front of the statue in a flower bed all trampled under foot, there is an irregular hillock covered with a few dead leaves. An old woman recognizing me comes out of her cellar and tells me 'Monsieur, this is the grave of Monsieur David and his son, the best people that ever lived.' They were killed by shrapnel fired upon them as they were leaving their house. Graves were found nearly everywhere. In front of the statue near a house, I find traces of fire.

"In this place, the old woman tells me, the Prussians burnt a body after soaking it in petroleum. Some men buried the charred remains.

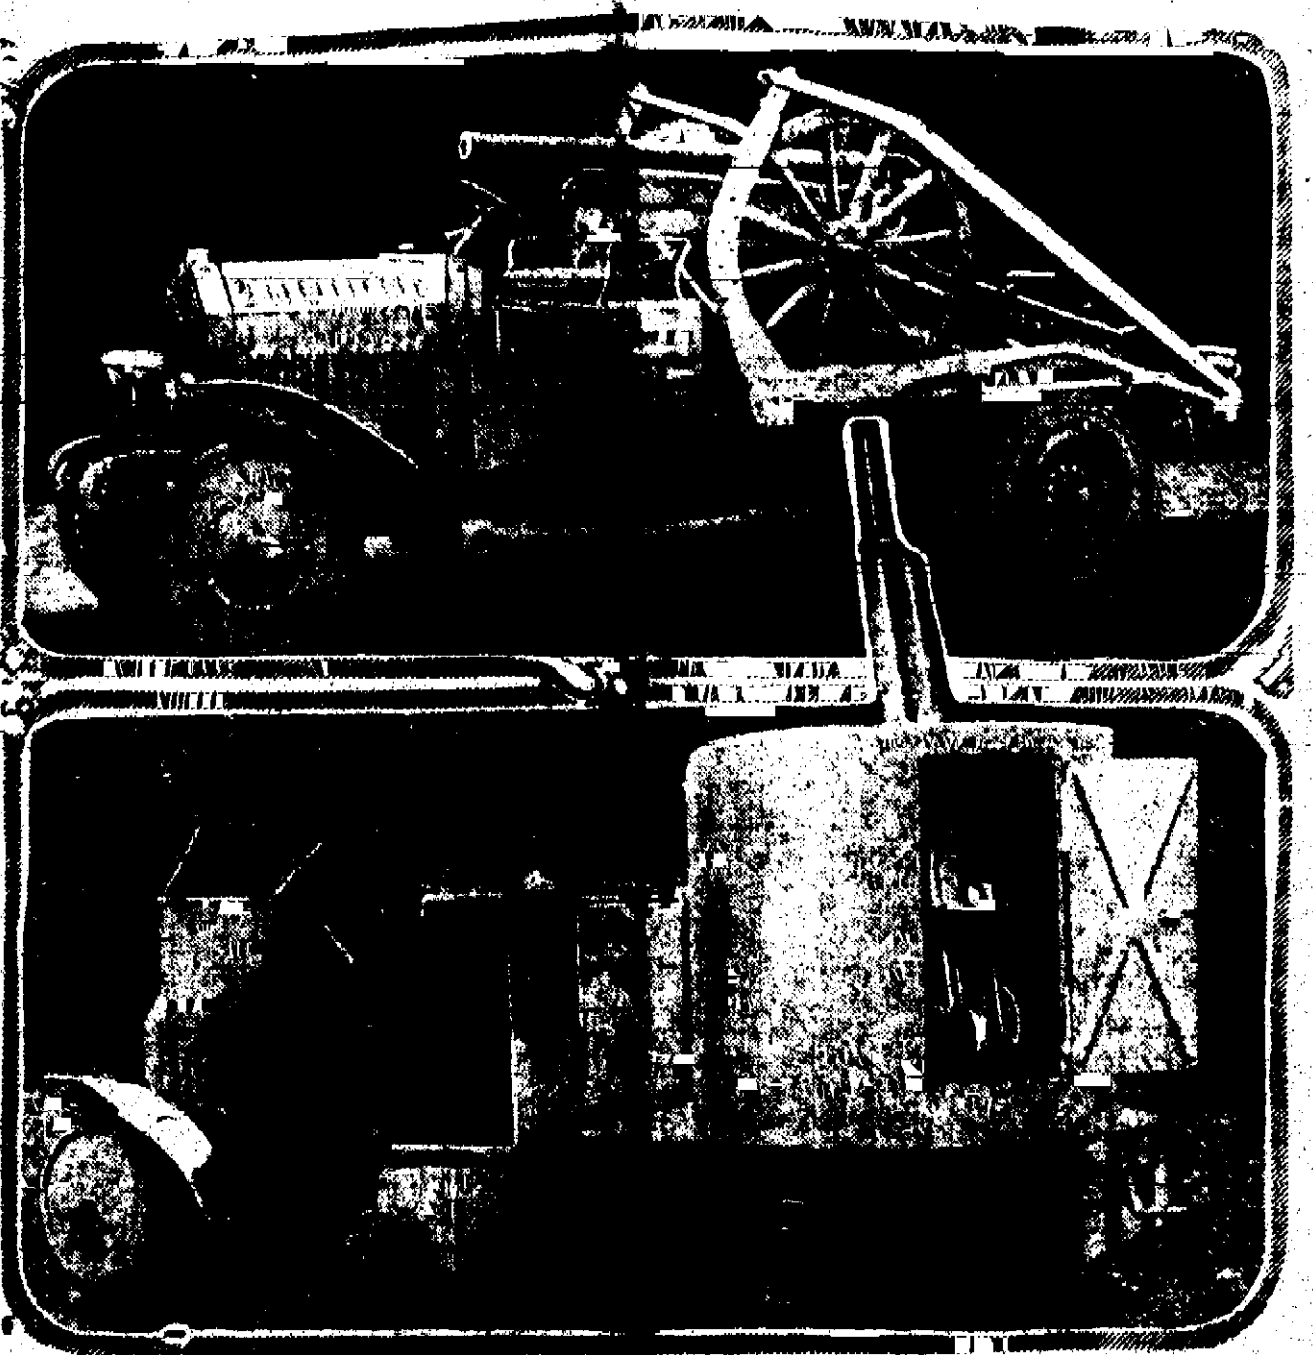

"I pick up a key which must have belonged to the dead man—a memento of this monstrous incident.

"In the Place du Peuple everything is burnt except one house which is riddled with bullets.

"In the Rue de Namur, above Lee

GERMANS MAINTAIN GREAT SYSTEM OF ESPIONAGE TO LEARN OF ENEMY'S PLANS

Official British Review of Fighting Days Tells of Difficulties Entered in the Field

LONDON, Sept. 28.—The official press bureau issued tonight a descriptive account of the operations in France of the British force and the French armies in immediate touch with it, communicated by an avowed news present at the headquarters of Field Marshal John French. This account, which supplements that issued September 24 from general headquarters, follows:

September 25, 1914. For four days there has been a comparative lull all along our front. This has been accompanied by a spell of fine weather, though the nights now are much cooler. One cannot have everything, however, and one evil result of the sunshine has been the release of flies, which were torpid during the wet days.

Fresh Troops Arrived.

Advantage has been taken of the arrival of reinforcements to relieve by fresh troops the men who have been on the firing line for some time. Several units therefore have received their baptism of fire during the week.

Since the last letter left general headquarters, evidence has been received which points to the fact that during counter-attacks on the night of Sunday, the twentieth, the German infantry fired into each other as the result of an attempt to carry out the dangerous expedient of a converging advance in the dark.

NEW YORK MACHINE SWEEPS THE STATE

Glynn and Whitman Nominated, While Sulzer Is Making Close Race

NEW YORK, Sept. 28 (Tuesday).—So-called "organization" candidates apparently swept the boards in the statewide primary yesterday for every nomination except United States senator on the Republican ticket.

Highly practically all the New York city vote and a segment of the upstate vote in early this morning, it seemed certain that Governor Martin H. Glynn was the Democratic gubernatorial nominee and District Attorney Charles S. Whitman the Republican.

Former Governor William Sulzer and former State Senator Fred M. Davison were running close together for the Progressive gubernatorial nomination, with both claiming victory.

Gerard Leads Roosevelt.

James W. Gerard, ambassador to Germany, led Franklin D. Roosevelt by a wide margin for the Democratic nomination for United States senator, while James S. McDonough was third. The Republican senatorial nomination was somewhat in doubt. William M. Calder piled up a big lead here, but late returns from upstate showed James W. Madenworth, Jr., was gaining rapidly. Hambridge Colby won an uncontested victory for the Progressive senatorial nomination.

John A. Hennessy, who headed the anti-Tammany ticket against Governor Glynn, was gaining in late returns from upstate, but his friends admitted that he had no chance of victory.

Returning on the congressional contest were very incomplete, but those received indicated that most of the present New York members of both parties were renominated.

The Tammany candidates for the assembly to New York city appeared to have won. These included Alfred E. Smith, the Tammany leader in the assembly.

KAISER DOUBLES EFFORTS TO BREAK THROUGH LINES OF ANGLO-FRENCH FORCES

Curtain Drops on the European Theater of War, Behind Which Great Battle Rages

Crucial Period in Struggle Arrives, but Nothing of Its Progress Is Known; Russians Have Completely Invested Forts of Przemyśl and Continue to Follow Retreating Austrians Into Hungary

Furious fighting continues in northern France, where the allied French and British armies are at grips with the German forces in what is characterized as the crucial action of the battle of the Aisne. Beyond admitting this fact, the official statements are vague. Few details of the struggle which may be the turning point of the western campaign have been given out.

One sentence, in which it is said "there is no change in the situation," epitomizes the official reports from London, Paris and Berlin. The allies claim to have made slight advances here and there, notably on the heights of the Meuse. The German official statement, however, declares that reports concerning a victorious advance of the enemy are untrue.

GERMANS REDOUBLE EFFORTS

Both the British and the French official statements refer to the violence of the attacks made by the Germans, who seem to have redoubled their efforts in an attempt to hurl the allied line. The reports indicate, however, that the French and British have given no ground before the onslaught of the invaders.

A very rigorous censorship evidently has been put in force at virtually all points, particularly in France, where the operations are at their fiercest. The reports are so guarded that the hopes of the people within the lines, although not that the allied forces are in a position to win, are not that the details of the operations might be of use to the enemy.

PRZEMYSL COMPLETELY INVESTED

Perograd reports officially that the Austrian stronghold of Przemyśl in Galicia is completely invested by the Russians and the main Austrian army is retiring behind the Carpathians into Hungary, pursued by the Russians. Berlin, however, declares that "reports of the fall of two of the Przemyśl forts are inventions."

The Montenegrins, who have allied themselves with the Serbians in the conflict with Austria, are making advances, according to advices. A dispatch from Cetinje says the Montenegrins are within artillery range of Sarajevo, capital of Bosnia.

The Austrian forts at Cattaro, Dalmatia, on September 19 sunk a large French warship, according to a dispatch to the Cologne Gazette. This ship was one of a fleet of 18 which was met by a salvo from one of the Austrian forts as it approached the stronghold.

DARDANELLES CLOSED TO NAVIGATION

A dispatch from Constantinople says that the Dardanelles have been closed to navigation. The Austrian government has confiscated the Canadian Pacific Railway company's securities and money deposited in Vienna, according to report, as well as the company's observation cars running on Austrian railroads. This is a result, it is said, of the refusal of the company to pay the dividends of the Austrian shareholders.

Advices received in Paris say that the rapid increase in grain prices in Austria is causing anxiety in official circles. Farmers are holding their supplies for higher prices, and the government proposes to fix a maximum price for this commodity.

WIRELESS NEWS SENT FROM PARIS

For the first time since the war began, wireless news sent out by the French government through the Eiffel tower station has been received in London. The message detailed the fierce fighting which took place in northern France between September 26 and 28.

Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster leader, in outlining the Ulster program with respect to the home rule bill, has called upon Ulsterites to throw themselves "whole heartedly into the patriotic action that the time demands, supporting the empire."

ALLIES WITHSTAND FIERCE ATTACK FOR DAYS

PARIS, Sept. 28.—French and British on the left wing have repulsed for days the attacks of the Germans, who have been endeavoring to take the allied positions by assault. On one occasion the French and British held positions within a quarter of a mile from the German front, where they were not in danger from the heavy German artillery, and were sheltered from the machine guns unless they came into the open.

One of the most furious German assaults was turned upon the trenches occupied by British regiments, which calmly awaited the onslaughts of line after line of Germans, meeting them with sustained fire and machine gun fire and sometimes at the point of the bayonet, which did great execution.

FRENCH RALLY TO SUPPORT OF BRITISH

The British, however, did not by any means bear the whole brunt of the fighting, for the French troops, including a division of the famous colonial infantry and the Turcos, as well as many battalions of French regulars and others composed of territorial troops, also faced successfully prolonged attacks, which were delivered with great persistence.

The vigor and spirit of the soldiers was considered remarkable after such an exhaustive campaign, during which they had scarcely a full day's rest. When not actually engaged in fighting, many of the regiments have marched 30 miles daily for several days when changing position in order to carry out new movements.

The reason for the recent determined attacks by the Germans along the Somme is credited in French military circles to the desire of the newly appointed German generals, who have taken the place of those removed by the emperor, to carry out some daring exploit.

The battlefield on the Somme seems to have been made by nature for such a battle.

I Help the Red Cross Society

Members of the Committee of One Hundred of the Pikes Peak chapter of the American Red Cross society have started their intensive campaign for funds to aid in alleviating suffering on the battlefields of Europe.

To date nearly $3,100 has been raised, and those who are soliciting contributions are meeting with marked success.

It is likely that someone who is cheerfully devoting his or her time to the work will call on you today. You are under no obligation to contribute a penny—although morally it is your duty to aid the work of the Red Cross society in whatever way you can.

Just a word of precaution. Do not give money to anyone soliciting Red Cross funds unless they carry proper credentials signed by Dr. Mary E. Noble and countersigned by Helen M. Curtis, or unless you personally know the solicitor.

Contributions may also be left at any of the banks and at the offices of The Gazette and Telegraph.

The Central Colorado exposition will open this morning with the judging of agricultural exhibits in the tent at the corner of Huertano street and Nevada avenue. Prize-winning crops from Lincoln, El Paso and Kin Canyon counties are on exhibition. Several local firms have sent in manufacturing displays. The Rose and iris clubs exhibit occupy a special section on the west side of the tent and are expected to attract a great deal of interest. Many individual exhibits are being shown.

The premiums offered by the merchants and business men of this city for prize products are on exhibition on the long table in the middle of the tent.

Many and fine stock cattle will arrive today and are to be housed in Pikes corral, adjoining the tent.

Special Meetings Today.

The Farmers' Building and State Dairymen's association will convene this morning. They will hold their meetings in the Chamber of Commerce rooms in the Burns building.

The exhibitors in the big tent are limited to dry farm crops. An especially fine exhibit from Colman, El Paso

Y. W. C. A. 214-4-0000

The Star Course committee of the Young Men's Christian association is now delivering the tickets which were subscribed for the coming season.
They are also announcing the talent composed of six entertainments to be given through the fall and winter in the Burns theater.

One of the attractions will be the International Operatic company, which will give selections from the best modern popular operas. This company has had wide experience in concert, oratorial and operatic companies. Only the selections which appeal to all will be sung. In English unless otherwise requested. They will present the "Sleeping Queen" in costume, a complete opera. The story is charming and the music delightful.

Another strong number of the course
this year will be the Ben-Greet Players, who are world famous. They have played in all of the large cities of the country, and during their season at the Garden Theater in New York, gave nearly 200 performances. They have played at the White House grounds and at the large universities of the United States.
They will present the "Merchant of Venice" in Colorado Springs.
There will be four other strong numbers in the course.

THE MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY

Today at the Empress the fifteenth episode of this great serial will be shown. Its title, "In a Borrowed Hy-droplane," assures us of some very exciting developments. Flo Labadie and James Larkin go through some harrowing experiences, we can assure you, and it's sure some picture.

"Parson Larkin's Wife," a Broncho two-reel feature, is also a pure good one that you don't want to miss. It's a story with a heart interest that pulls a short synopsis of the story follows:
Jane Woods, a chorus girl, goes on a vacation to a small New England village, and is immediately the subject of all the town gossip. James Larkin, the village parson, proposes to her and is accepted. Jane makes a very good little wife and everything runs smoothly until the musical comedy company with which Jane used to be arrives in town, and Jane is recognized by the girls. Madge and two or three of her old companions call on Jane during a meeting of the missionary society, which breaks up in horrified confusion when the ladies learn that the strangers are members of the theatrical profession. Even Larkin is influenced by the women's story of what Jane "used to be." He turns against his wife and Jane decides to leave him.
She is on her way to the station when she encounters Hud, a halfwitted boy whom she had once saved from the hands of an angry constable.
but who later had been sent to an asylum. Hud is sneaking into the school room with a large bread knife, intent on killing the children who have taunted and laughed him. Confident in her influence over him, Jane succeeds in attracting his attention long enough to enable the children to escape, but she is wounded while trying to take the knife from the infuriated boy. After that she is reinstated in the good opinion of the village. The mothers of the children, whose lives had been threatened, make amends for their past aloofness.

with an entrancing tale of love and liberty. It is based on the revolt of and it is asserted that one of the most marvelous features is the manner in which the atmosphere of the period—

COL. ROOSEVELT SCORES LIQUOR TRAFFIC IN OHIO

Says Democrats Are in League
With So-Called Liberal
Interests in State

RAPS BOTH OLD PARTIES

Points to Progressive Platform as Only Solution to Political Ills

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 28.—To an audience that filled Memorial hall and overflowed into the streets for nearly a block in every direction Col. Theodore Roosevelt tonight denounced the liquor traffic and urged the voters to support the Progressive party in its stand against the anti-prohibition amendment originated by the so-called "liberal interests" in this state.

He asserted that the Democratic party in Ohio was in league with the liquor interests in the present state campaign and charged the Republican party with attempting to carry favor with both the wets and the dries.

Plays Old Parties

Colonel Roosevelt criticized the old parties as fossilized and found little save inefficiency and incompetency in their programs affecting labor combinations and the tariff and pointed to the Progressive platform as the only one showing the way to the reform.

The old parties he said cannot and will not deal with new ideas in adequate fashion.

"They know that if they put the line of the new ideas into the old bottles of their organizations these old organizations would burst asunder," he said. The attitude of the present Democratic administration on the tariff and trusts he described as fitting to hit it if it is a bear and to hug it if it is a calf.

Opposes State Ownership

The colonel explained his opposition to state ownership in most instances as one of the superior efficiency of private ownership. He said that the distribution of the mails, water and light he said fall naturally within the province of the state but in general, state regulation and supervision were to be preferred to state ownership.

"My own recent experience in traveling on a state-owned railroad in France and in using the state-owned telephone in England impressed me with the marked comparative superiority in service rendered by our own private-owned railroads and telephones but I am informed that in Belgium the direct revenue obtained by the state is small."

In pleading for an untrammeled tariff commission the speaker declared that the Democratic position was hampered in the same manner that the Aldrich-Vreeland adjustment was by the conflict of sectional and private interests.

"We are a great nation," he asserted, "and we must think nationally and act nationally."

Colonel Roosevelt pointed to the place.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—A graphic description of the wreck and desolation of the ancient city of Louvain, Belgium, is given by Prof. G. Gilson of the University of Louvain in a letter to the Belgian minister of justice. The city was one of the Belgian high commissions which recently presented a statement of Belgium's case to President Wilson. The letter follows:

I entered the city, coming from the station. Beginning at Belgium, I saw numerous burnt and crumbling houses, the nearer I came to the ruins and silent city the more their number I saw. I passed through the main street, the Rue de la Loi, and saw the ruins of the city. I saw the ruins of the city. I saw the ruins of the city.

Smoking Heap of Ruins

At the Sept. 28th, Louvain was a smoking heap of ruins. The city was a smoking heap of ruins. The city was a smoking heap of ruins. The city was a smoking heap of ruins. The city was a smoking heap of ruins.

KAISER DOUBLES EFFORTS TO BREAK THROUGH LINES OF ANGLO-FRENCH FORCES

Curtain Drops on the European Theater of War, Behind Which Great Battle Rages

Crucial Period in Struggle Arrives, but Nothing of Its Progress Is Known: Russians Have Completely Invested Forts of Przemyśl and Continue to Follow Retreating Austrians Into Hungary

Furious fighting continues in northern France, where the allied French and British armies are at grips with the German forces in what is characterized as the crucial action of the battle of the Aisne. Beyond admitting this fact, the official statements are vague. Few details of the struggle which may be the turning point of the western campaign have been given out.

One sentence in which it is said "there is no change in the situation," epitomizes the official reports from London, Paris and Berlin. The allies claim to have made slight advances here and there, notably on the heights of the Meuse. The German official statement, however, declares that reports concerning a victorious advance of the enemy are untrue.

GERMANS REDOUBLE EFFORTS

Both the British and the French official statements refer to the violence of the attacks made by the Germans, who seem to have redoubled their efforts in an attempt to hurl back the allied line. The reports indicate, however, that the French and British have given no ground before the onslaught of the invaders.

A very rigorous censorship evidently has been imposed at virtually all points, particularly in London, regarding the operations at the front. The war office, however, is permitting the boys of the people with the news of the operations might be of aid to the Germans.

PRZEMYSL COMPLETELY INVESTED

Perograd reports officially that the Austrian stronghold of Przemyśl in Galicia is completely invested by the Russians and the main Austrian army is retiring behind the Carpathians into Hungary, pursued by the Russians. Berlin, however, declares that "reports of the fall of two of the Przemyśl forts are inventions."

The Montenegrins, who have allied themselves with the Serbians in the conflict with Austria, are making advances, according to advices. A dispatch from Cetinje says the Montenegrins are within artillery range of Sarajevo, capital of Bosnia.

The Austrian forts at Cattaro, Dalmatia, on September 19 sunk a large French warship, according to a dispatch to the Cologne Gazette. This ship was one of a fleet of 19 which was met by a salvo from one of the Austrian forts as it approached the stronghold.

DARDANELLES CLOSED TO NAVIGATION

A dispatch from Constantinople says that the Dardanelles have been closed to navigation.

The Austrian government has confiscated the Canadian Pacific Railway company's securities and money deposited in Vienna, according to report, as well as the company's observation cars running on Austrian railroads. This is a result, it is said, of the refusal of the company to pay the dividends of the Austrian shareholders.

Advices received in Paris say that the rapid increase in grain prices in Austria is causing anxiety in official circles. Farmers are holding their supplies for higher prices, and the government proposes to fix a maximum price for this commodity.

WIRELESS NEWS SENT FROM PARIS

For the first time since the war began, wireless news sent out by the French government through the Eiffel tower station has been received in London. The message detailed the fierce fighting which took place in northern France between September 26 and 28.

Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster leader, in outlining the Ulster program with respect to the home rule bill, has called upon Ulsterites to throw themselves "whole heartedly into the patriotic action that the time demands, supporting the empire."

ALLIES WITHSTAND FIERCE ATTACK FOR DAYS

PARIS, Sept. 28.—French and British on the left wing have repulsed for days the attacks of the Germans who have been endeavoring to take the allied positions by assault. On one occasion the French and British held positions within a quarter of a mile from the German front where they were not in danger from the heavy German artillery, and were sheltered from the machine guns unless they came into the open.

One of the most furious German assaults was turned upon the trenches occupied by British regiments which calmly awaited the onslaughts of line after line of Germans, meeting them with sustained rifle fire which did not cease until the point of the bayonet which did great execution.

FRENCH RALLY TO SUPPORT OF BRITISH

The British have not been any means bear the brunt of the fighting for the French troops including a division of the famous colonial regiments and the Turcos, as well as many battalions of French regulars and others composed of territorial troops who have been successfully prolonged attacks which were delivered with great ferocity.

The vigor and spirit of the soldiers was considered remarkable during such an exhaustive campaign, during which they had scarcely a full day's rest. When not actually engaged in fighting many of the regiments have been in the trenches for several days when changing position in order to carry out new movements.

The reason for the recent determined attacks by the Germans along the Somme is credited in French military circles to the desire of the newly appointed German general who have taken the place of those removed by the emperor to carry out some daring exploit.

The battlefield on the Somme seems to have been made by nature for such exploits. (Continued on Page Three.)

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

NOBODY CAN TELL WHEN YOU DARKEN, FADED HAIR WITH SAGE TEA

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wash's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe ready to use for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says: "I have used Wash's Sage and Sulphur, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. It's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application of two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant."

RUSSIANS CHECK GERMANS IN SUWALKI; STILL ARE IN PURSUIT OF THE AUSTRIANS

PETROGRAD, Sept. 29.—(Tuesday).—The following official communication from the chief of staff regarding the Russian operations has been given out here:

"Russian troops are driving fast on the offensive in the forests of Augustow, in Russian Poland, province of Suwalki. The Germans are using heavy siege artillery in the bombardment of the fortress of Ossowetz. An attempt by the German infantry to close in on the fortress has been checked.

"On the front of Silesia the enemy has been greatly reinforced and shows much activity.

"Sorties by the garrison of Przrasel have not been successful. Many prisoners, a number of cannon and some stores of ammunition have fallen into our hands.

"As the Austrian retreat in Galicia continues, great confusion is noticeable in the ranks.

Significance of Campaign.

PETROGRAD, Sept. 29.—(Tuesday).—Colonel Shumsky, military critic of the Bourse Gazette, comments on the success of the Russians in operating through the Carpathians as one of the most notable in military history.

Despite the generally accepted idea, he says, that Russian troops are unable to operate in the mountains, as shown in the Manchurian campaign, the Russians on this occasion proved that "under able leadership they are able to conquer alike on the plains or in the mountains."

Referring to events on the river Niemen, Colonel Shumsky says:

"It is essential to determine whether the Germans will be able to compel the Russians to refrain from the operations in the Carpathians in order to rush to the Niemen."

He believes the operations on the Niemen, even in the event of German success, of which he says there are very few indications, will not have decisive significance, while the Russian operations in Galicia and in the Carpathians will influence the whole course of the campaign.

The correspondent of the Novoe Vremya reports that the Austrians are suffering from a shortage of food.

Moratorium Extended.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—(Tuesday).—A Petrograd dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company states the Russian moratorium has been extended for a month.

European War Bulletins

GENEVA, Sept. 29.—(Tuesday).—A report received here from Munich estimates that 2,000,000 men and women are idle in Germany and that the number of unemployed is increasing daily. A lack of raw material, it is said, is the cause.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—(Tuesday).—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Venice, dated Sunday, says that the French fleet at that time had been in action for the last 48 hours, bombarding the port of Cattaro and the fortified island on the Dalmatian coast.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—(Tuesday).—A Reuter dispatch from Ostend says that a traveler from Brussels reports the town full of German troops coming from the south.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—(Tuesday).—A dispatch from Rome to the Exchange Telegraph company says that a message from Budapest asserts that the minister of the interior has announced that 15 new cases of cholera were discovered in the city's military hospital Monday morning.

PRINCE ADALBERT, SON OF KAISER, IS DEAD IN BRUSSELS

LONDON, Sept. 29.—(Tuesday).—The chief correspondent of the Daily News sends with reserve the report that Prince Adalbert, the German emperor's third son, has died in a hospital in Brussels.

Dr. Dr. Dr. King Albert's third son, according to this report, was ordered to hold an audience in the presence of two German doctors, and it was found the prince had been killed by a German bullet. In other authorities on German matters, it was found they also had died from a similar cause.

Prince Adalbert has served chiefly in the German navy and was navigation officer of the German cruiser Goeben.

CANADIAN TROOPS ON WAY TO FRONT VILLA AND CARRANZA DO NOT MAY WITHDRAW

Money Being Raised to Care for Families of Those Who Fall on Field

Plans Now Under Way Which Will Restore Peace in Mexico, Belief

OTTAWA, Sept. 28.—That the Canadian troops have embarked for Europe was admitted here tonight by the Duke of Connaught, governor general of Canada, at a rally at which the Ottawa campaign for the Canadian patriotic fund was initiated.

Addressing a great crowd, the duke said:

"Recently I have had the pleasure several times to visit Vancouver and also to be present at what is perhaps no longer a secret, the embarkation of the Canadian troops."

"Every creed and every nationality is represented in this undertaking. I believe that the efforts now being made throughout Canada to raise a patriotic fund would insure that not a single one of the dependents of those who had gone to the front would suffer want."

a formidable conflict. The country is undulating and in some places without woods. The lower parts offer splendid covering for troops approaching to attack. This advantage, however, has been rendered to a great extent without avail, owing to the number of aeroplanes in use on both sides.

The center of the battle line today again became the scene of heavy fighting. Here the Germans have most of their big guns, and they also brought much infantry into action. Their efforts are declared to have been ineffectual, however.

OFFICIAL REPORT BY FRENCH WAR OFFICE

PARIS, Sept. 28.—The following official communication was issued tonight:

"First—On our left wing, the reports on the situation are favorable.

"Second—On the center, our troops have successfully withstood new and very violent attacks. We have made some slight progress on the heights of the Meuse. In the Woëvre region, a thick fog has caused a suspension of operations.

"Third—On our right wing (Lorraine and the Vosges) there has been no change in the situation."

WIRELESS REPORTS OF WAR SENT FROM THE FRENCH CAPITAL

LONDON, Sept. 29.—For the first time since the beginning of the war, news by wireless sent out by the French government through the Eiffel tower station was received in London tonight. The message, dated September 28, follows:

"Feeling that their position was becoming more and more critical under the pressure of the allied arms, the Germans have tried to stop us by repeated counter-attacks. Since September 26, they have delivered by day and night frequent and very violent attacks at several positions on our front. Everywhere they have been repulsed, sustaining considerable losses and abandoning as they lay thousands of dead and wounded.

"The English army corps and the guards were severely put to the test and a large number of prisoners fell into our hands. It is to be remarked that many of the latter gave themselves up voluntarily, although they could have escaped.

"It seems that the German soldiers are beginning to have no further doubt as to the treatment which awaits them in captivity. At the beginning, all those we captured had a terrified and suppliant attitude, arising out of statements made by their officers to the effect that the French shot their prisoners. It is rather by an excess of kindness that we transgress in regard to them and the too kindly treatment which is meted out to prisoners in certain districts of France has even evoked complaints, which occasionally have been justified, on the part of all those who know how our men are treated in Germany."

MARYLAND REPUBLICANS SCORE THE DEMOCRATS

BALTIMORE, Sept. 29.—The Republicans of Maryland in state convention here tonight adopted a platform in which they reaffirmed their allegiance to the doctrine of protection to American industries and scored the Democratic administration for imposing on the people additional burdens through the reduction of the tariff.

The nomination of Edward J. Carrington as the party's candidate for United States senator was ratified as also were the nominations of Robert P. Dyer for congress from the first district and Dr. William J. Healy from the second.

It don't take long for kidney and bladder trouble to give you a lame back, and even worse if not treated. Mrs. H. T. She says: "I took Foley's Kidney Pills and now my back is stronger than in years, and kidney trouble and painful bladder sensation have entirely gone. ## MERCHANT MARINE BILL MAY GO OVER TILL WINTER

Despite President's Desire That Action Be Taken at Once, Leaders Favor Delay

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—There was little doubt in congressional circles tonight that the bill for government purchase of merchant ships would go over to the winter session without action. President Wilson is in conference with ship leaders today, he still thought it advisable to pass the measure immediately and would urge that it be taken up.

He was told, however, by both advocates and opponents of the project that there was a powerful sentiment against beginning consideration of the bill at this time.

Democratic Leader Underwood and Representative Alexander of Missouri, chairman of the merchant marine committee, both of whom favor the measure, advised the president that a large number of the house members, restive over the prolonged session and anxious to get into their home districts, were strongly in favor of postponing action until next session.

The question was still open when the conference ended, but everywhere except at the White House, postponement was accepted as certain.

Beachey Loops the Loop Four Times Over the Capitol

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Lincoln Beachey, in an aeroplane, looped the loop four times over the dome of the Capitol today while President Wilson watched the performance from a White House window. The aviator then made such an abrupt landing on the lawn of the Potomac river near the Washington monument that observers in the tall wireless towers at the Arlington radio station reported he had fallen.

Beachey then finished the performance by turning two loops over the White House and three more loops, flying low over the business section of the city while government officials and thousands of spectators held their breath.

CZAR GETS SUPPORT OF BANKERS FOR THE WAR

The emperor attended the audience.

AUSTRIA CONFISCATES RAILROAD SECURITIES

VIENNA, Sept. 28.—The Austrian government has confiscated the Canadian Pacific Railway company's securities and money deposited in Vienna, it is reported as well as the company's shares and bonds owned by Austrian citizens. ## U. S. TAKES PRECAUTIONS AGAINST CHOLERA FROM WAR

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Cholera has been reported in epidemic form on the eastern frontier of the European war, necessitating measures were taken here today to prevent any possible infection from reaching this country by vessels from the Mediterranean.

BANK ROBBED 100 YARDS FROM UTAH STATE PRISON

Lane Bandit Locks Cashier and Bookkeeper in Vault and Escapes With $1,525

BALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 28.—Within a hundred yards of the Utah state prison, a masked man held up George A. Goff, cashier of the Sugar House bank, and Clifford Goff, a bookkeeper, "relieved the two men in the bank vault, took $1,525 and escaped. Forty minutes later the men were able to get out of the vault and save the alarm.

No cash was taken and the cashier, "Burrhead," as he was called, and the bookkeeper, "Burrhead," caused Goff to look up and find a large pistol in front of his face. The Goffs, who are brothers, were compelled to stand with their faces to the wall until the robber had emptied the cashier's drawer, from which he took $1,525. He made a hurried search of the safe, finding no money, and then forced the two men to enter the big vault, closing the door behind them.

The lock of the door did not turn completely and the men were able to open it from the inside. Officers took up the search for the robber at once, but are working against unusual difficulties.

CHURCHES BEGIN MOVE TO END EUROPEAN WAR

Commercial Interests Have Demonstrated Inability, Says Dr. Young

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—An endeavor to end the European war by the churches began today with a gathering of all the leading religious leaders in New York City. The gathering was held at the headquarters of the Presbyterian ministry of the city, and was presided over by Dr. S. Edgar Young, former chairman of the official conference of the New York Federation of Churches.

The gathering was held in the presence of a large number of clergymen and laymen, and was attended by representatives of all the major religious denominations in the city.

SMITH LOSES SUIT IN ELECTION CONTEST CASE

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—A decision for a writ of supersedeas by the United States supreme court, asking that the ruling of Judge Cullen of the district court, which held that Benjamin J. Hilliard was the proper nominee for congress in the First district, over George Allen Smith, was set aside, was overruled in the supreme court today. Hilliard secured a court order last week directing the election commission to furnish him with a certificate of nomination. Hilliard's party was one vote short to elect a second round, but Smith's party won, asking the court to take original jurisdiction.

Just One Application and the Hairs Vanish

Any woman can keep her skin free from blemishes and keep her hair soft and shiny by using just one application of this simple mixture. When hair grows thin, apply a simple paste made by mixing some water with powdered talc. Apply this to bare scalp and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off. Wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is a simple treatment, but the effect is the real delight.

DAUGHTERS CONT-EST WILL
INVOLVING $4,000 ESTATE

Anna and Gertrude Lodge Alleged That
Father Was of Unsound Mind
When He Made Will

Anna and Gertrude Lodge are contesting the will of Frank Lodge, their father, in the county court. Contestants allege that their father was of unsound mind and mentally incompetent at the time he made the will, cutting them off with $1 each. The case was begun yesterday afternoon. The Lodge will was executed May 4, 1912. Under its provisions one-half the estate was to go to Mrs. Lodge, one-fourth to a daughter, Elizabeth Wain, and one-fourth to a minor son, May 20, 1912, 16 days after the making of the will. Mrs. Lodge secured a divorce in the district court at Pueblo and was awarded one-half the estate. She is now seeking to collect one-half the remainder of the estate under the will which is offered for probate by Elizabeth Wain. The estate involved is valued at approximately $4,000.

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Unionville, Mo.—"I suffered from a female trouble and I got so weak that I could hardly walk around the floor without holding on to something. I had nervous spells and my fingers would cramp and my face would draw, and I could not speak, nor sleep to do any good, had no appetite, and everyone thought I would not live."

Some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried it, and so much medicine and my doctor said he could do me no good so I told my husband he might get me a bottle and I could try it. By the time I had taken I felt better. I continued it and, and I am well and strong."

MIDWEST REFINING COMPANY NETS $662,908 DURING FIRST SIX MONTHS OF OPERATION

Report Shows Big Profit Despite Drop in Price of Gasoline: New Oil Wells Opened.

Despite abnormal business conditions and prices, the net earnings of the Midwest Refining Company for the first six months reached a total of $662,908.29, according to the first semiannual report of President O. H. Shoup, issued yesterday. The average price for gasoline during that term was 1 cent a gallon, while last year the average was 12 cents. This made a great difference in the company's profit.

The company opened a new well, running 1,000 barrels a day last Saturday, and expects to open up two more this week. Ten days ago the company opened two wells in the same locality, flowing 3,500 barrels, and indications give promise of an abundance of oil and with no signs of the supply diminishing.

The report of President Shoup follows:
THE MIDWEST REFINING COMPANY.
First Semiannual Report, March 1 to September 1, 1914.
Denver, Colo., September 28, 1914.
To the Stockholders of the Midwest Refining Company:

We submit herewith statement of earnings and expenses, showing net earnings for the first six months of the company's operation of $662,908.29. These results have been obtained during a period which has been one of universal business depression, and this has been particularly true as to the prices obtainable for the refined products of oil. We also submit balance sheet as of September 1, 1914, and analysis of cash receipts. At the time your company was organized there were certain uncompleted construction expenditures which were assumed by the company and which are now paid; in addition thereto an amount of new construction was required, which has been provided and paid for.

The company has acquired valuable lands on oil lands in what is known as the Grass Creek oil fields in Hot Springs county, Wyoming, located 35 miles from Casper. We have established a camp at this field, drilled four oil wells, having an estimated daily average production of 1,000 barrels, and are continuing the development of the field to ascertain its further possibilities. While this is not immediately commercially available, we consider it as a very valuable asset to the company.

The company likewise has acquired promising oil leases in what is known as the Buffalo basin in Park county, Wyoming, 10 miles distant from the Grass Creek oil field. Whether these lands are profitable for oil yet remains to be proven, but in a conservative way, the company is conducting operations to determine this. Yours very truly,
O. H. SHOUP, President.

PUEBLO SHOWS INTEREST IN BIPLANE-AUTO RACE

Say Town Is Eager for More
Aeroplane Spectacles

George S. Elston, Milton Alexander and A. B. Walker comprised the local delegation of hotel men that attended the "Grangers" convention in Pueblo Saturday. They met in regular monthly session at the Vail hotel. This organization was founded at Denver in 1905 by Leigh Fuller, and was a local gathering of hotel men. It is now a national institution, and has been taken up by hotel men in all parts of America.

A great deal of enthusiasm is being shown in the coming aeroplane flights by Pueblo people, according to Mr. Elston. Lincoln Beachey and Barney Oldfield are due to arrive there October 5. They will stage a combined auto and biplane race. Beachey is president of the company to which the late Weldon B. Cooke belonged. Aviation Cooke met his death at Pueblo following a crash flight from this city to the State fair grounds, about two weeks ago. Permission was asked by Beachey to fly there. He intends to demonstrate that a flight can be made under the same conditions which Cooke encountered. Pueblo people are taking a great deal of interest in the event. Two flights will be attempted, October 5 and 6, by a Florence aviator.

"Pueblo does not seem disturbed by the accident to Cooke," said Mr. Elston. "And the people are looking forward to the coming flights, and especially the auto and biplane race."

MANY AFTER JOB IN HEALTH DEPARTMENT

Fourteen Would Be Commissioner; Council to Make Appointment Soon

The question of appointing a successor to Health Commissioner E. W. Frost, who died at Excelsior Springs, Mo., last week, will be decided in the near future by the city council, although every commissioner states that as yet he has formed no definite opinion as to whom he wishes appointed. Fourteen applications for the position have been made. This, however, does not affect the fact that the council may choose some person for the health commissionership who has not made application.

No definite line of procedure is laid down by the city charter for the filling of a vacancy in the council. The four remaining members of the council will make the appointment and may choose any citizen they wish.

One Woman Applicant.
Among those who have announced their desire to become health commissioner for the remainder of Mr. Frost's term of office is one woman, Mrs. Jennie Shelley Boyd. Others who have made application are: Robert Blunt, William L. Spencer, R. C. Wright, Dr. R. B. Grover, Ralph H. Tuley, Dr. B. L. Huestis, Harry Hutchinson, L. M. Counts, John J. Bloom, Charles Hanes, Perry Botts and Willet R. Willis.

"I am certain that no idea has been formed by any of the commissioners as to whom they want to succeed Mr. Frost," said Mayor McKesson yesterday. "We will try to select a man, without regard to political or religious affiliations, considering only his ability and worth."

Council Is Undecided.
Several names have been suggested by friends of persons who have asked that their names be not considered. We may decide upon someone who does not wish the office and then attempt to persuade him to accept it. In connection with his candidacy Willis makes the following statement: As it is to be the duty of the mayor and commissioners of the city of Colorado Springs to appoint a successor to the late E. W. Frost as commissioner of public health and sanitation, I wish to enter my application for the appointment.

To this work, if appointed, I would bring a particularly keen interest, since my work in Colorado college was chosen with a view to later medical study, and during the eight years since leaving college my interest has never been lessened, but has grown rather, especially along the line of sanitation and hygiene. If appointed I will favor continuing the policy of education which has characterized the department in the past and which has produced such marked results in the diminution of the fly, evil odors, and other things. I would favor extending this popular knowledge by every possible means in order that the rules of the board of health may be fortified by popular information. There are many at hand for the spreading of knowledge of hygiene, such as slides at the picture theaters and articles by authorities in newspapers—which would have no material cost on account of their real news value, but which would have immeasurable influence.

It is one of the favorable location of Colorado Springs and the residence here of eminent specialists and the ever ready cooperation of the Colorado college laboratories with their staffs, it would seem that the department of health were in a particularly favorable position to crystallize much information in the case of tubercular cases, a movement which would place this city in its proper position of leadership in this work and would result in favorable publicity for the region. It would become my purpose to equip myself for efficient service by continuing study and to bring to bear on the work every faculty of which I am capable.

BILLY SUNDAY COMES TO SPRINGS OCT. 12

Plans for the union meeting, which will be held Sunday evening at the First Presbyterian church, were discussed. John Marshall of the Methodist Temperance society will be the principal speaker.

Reacher got a homer in each game. Crawford was ordered to the club house by Umpire Hart in the first contest for protesting a third strike on Shodoras.

COLORADO GRID WARRIORS GETTING RUSY

Three Teams Out at Cal. University

BOULDER, Colo., Sept. 28.—With three full teams in uniform for both the varsity and freshman eleven, football practice at the University of Colorado is assuming a more serious aspect. After the two games next Saturday, when the varsity eleven meets Wyoming and the freshmen meet Manual Training High school, the coaches will be able to pick their first squads and get down to solid work.

From the 33 men in suits every evening the following have been ordered to the training table: Allen, Gammon, Huber, Reals, Jeter, McCarty, McBride, E. R. Nelson, Powers, Sloan, Walter, Zeigler, Sells, Cooper, Eastman and Glendonning. These players will probably comprise the first team until after the Wyoming game, at least. Among the younger, lighter candidates who are trying for the squad are: Blake, Parker, Newman, Guthrie, Abbott, Rusk, Stocker, D. Nelson, R. A. Flannigan, Leroy, Brice, Chapman, Smith, Hennard and Walker.

Coach Frank Kemp and Assistant Clarence Eckel are finding some excellent material in the first-year men. Their mettle will be tested fully on Saturday, when the freshmen will raise the curtain for the Wyoming Colorado game by bucking the proteges of former Capt. Carl Knowles from Manual Training High school. The following freshmen are in suits: Bentsel, Greig, Patton, Crots, Eckel, Rymet, Adams, Gooding, Storke, Wild, Yegge, Carwright, G. Nelson, Doble, Weber, Eschenburg, Harvey, Randall, Catterston, Wylan, Costello, Talbot, Flannigan, Love, Smith, Kerr, Dickey, Merritt, Lawrence and Vincent.

MINERS HAVE 10 VETERANS; OLD TERROR STAR IS OUT

Lee Worth, Former Tackle Here After Birth on Blue Squad; Team Prospects Are Good

GOLDEN, Sept. 28.—An inspection of the available varsity material at the Colorado School of Mines indicates the assembly of a most formidable contender for championship honors in the Rocky Mountain conference this season.

The veterans include Captain and Halfback Hugh S. McKnight; Sammy Burris, quarterback; Fullback H. H. Hinesman; Phil McGuire, halfback of the 1912 squad; Steve Fullaway, line man and track star last year, now out for the back field; Gaudier, subquarter last season, and one of the speediest men in the conference; Harry Lavenor, tackle; J. Shanley, end; A. F. Duggeby, guard; and C. V. Olson, center.

Those lost are De Laittre, tackle; Johnson, center; Pearce, end; Haver, quarterback; Hammen, line man; and Stringham, back. De Laittre is expected to return next fall. Stringham is registered at the University of Denver.

Roll, Minnesota State university, 6 feet 3, 180, tackle. Worth, Colorado Springs Terrors, 5 feet 3, 180, guard or tackle. Heintzman, East Denver, 5 feet 10, 190, guard.

Chavez Knocked Out in Second Round by Mitchell

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 28.—Benny Mitchell, Milwaukee, knocked out Benny Chavez of Trinidad, Colo., in the second round of a scheduled 10-round bout here this evening. The knockout came as the result of a left handed blow to the stomach as Chavez was leading the fighting to Mitchell. The first round went to Chavez by a shave and the second was even up to the deciding blow.

AGGIES GETTING DOWN TO WORK, DUSSE WILL HELP

Team Will Not Be as Strong as Last, However; Hunting for Back Field Material

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 28.—The first hard blow to fall on Coach Nelson Norgren since his arrival from the east came last week when Roy McIntyre, who was one of the best linemen on the team, announced that he had intended to leave school.

The loss of McIntyre will hurt the varsity probably more than the loss of any other man, as he was the best kicker on the team and also a tower of strength in the line. In the early practice Mac hurt his shoulder, but was out every afternoon to work out.

When asked if he had made any definite arrangements, McIntyre stated that he was not sure of his plans yet and that he may be back on the east bench, as soon as he is able to straighten out his future business matters. The backers of the Crimson squad and all of Mac's friends are working hard to keep him at school.

The scrimmage game between the freshmen and varsity teams on Cummings field was rather discouraging to the coaches, who found out that this is just the kind of work that is being done by the players. Another thing was discovered and that was that the men have not been training as they should. The poor showings will cause the coaches to give out the hardest kind of practice for the next few weeks so that the men will be in shape.

During the time that the two teams were in action, the varsity made two touchdowns and the infants brought one over the Crimson goal line. The rest of the playing was carried on in the center of the field and the varsity was put on the defense by Coach Norgren, so they could learn to stop the rushes of the infants. Lowell Romney and Briggs worked the best for the varsity, while Keller and Ramseyer put up some good work for the infants. Neither team has yet mastered its plays.

Utah Loses Star Punter; Norgren Working Squad

FORT COLLINS, September 28.—Utah, famous as the University of Colorado center when the team of that university defeated the University of Nebraska; and later center for the Dartmouth team, is in Fort Collins and is likely to assist Coach Hughes in preparing the Aggies for their coming campaign.

Joe is a brother of Archie Brusse, now with the University of Denver coaching staff. Those who saw Joe handling the big 220-pound Miller, who was the center for Nebraska, will never forget it.

The Aggie team is showing up strong, even as Coach Hughes predicted. There are enough veterans in the lineup to leave it and strengthen it. During the last week the men have been working diligently. The coach has not given any man assurance of any position, but has been switching them about to determine where they will fit best into his machine. From the way the men have worked, this lineup is quite possibly one present selection:

Abner Johnson, 185 pounds, right end and Johnson was in the game last year and got his baptism then.

Shepardson and Scofield, 182, are contesting for right tackle. Both are big men and new on the varsity, but Shepardson was on last year's freshman team.

Finble, 160, right guard. Shepardson and West are trying for center. West weighs 214 and was center last year.

Wilson, 171, left guard, last year's player.

Robinson, 180, right end. Astors, Falk and Kinney are also trying for the place. Kinney won his 'A' last year, but was put out by a bad ankle.

Sorenson, 188, was last year's Div. Ier a good part of the time. Div. Ier was a regular quarter, but he was out of the game or in other positions, so that Sorenson got some fine experience.

"Ole" Johnson, 173, fullback and star punter.

J. Morrison, Randal, Paxton, McCarthy and Morre are also candidates for back field positions. They have shown up well.

Tigers Average 162 and Line Will Be Heavy

Players Settle Down to Two Months of Work

Rothgeb Wants Second Team; Start Training Table This Week; Play Freshmen Saturday; 20 Men Out Last Night; Verner and Davis Showing Good Form in Punting

TIGER WEIGHT STATISTICS

Player	Position	Weight
Kramer	Left end	173
Schweiger	Right tackle	187
"Stub" Davis	Quarter—Half	146
Mack Davis	Guard	166
Gerlach	Guard	162
Ross	Quarter	135
Taylor	Left half	174
Esmoil	Right end	169
Ragle	Left tackle	165
Verner	Right half	145
Mimmack	Center	162
Garside	Right guard	165
Rawlings	Tackle	164
Van Stone	Half—End	156
Stocks	Half—End	156
Madden	Tackle	158
Cover	Half—Full	158

Team average—162.
Line average—168.
Backfield average—151.
Note: All weights are "strip" weights.

The above weight statistics of the Tigers show that the team will be a little heavier than last year. The line is well balanced in weight, while the backfield will be practically as it was last year, probably a little heavier. None of the men have put on weight as yet, but with the training table starting this week, the individuals probably will begin to fatten up. If figures of past training can be taken as examples, the Tigers should gain about five pounds to the man during the season.

Last night 19 eligibles were out for the team, and extraordinary efforts are to be made to bring out several more players enough to make a solid eleven. If Coach Rothgeb could get two eleven out, he would be in better shape for scrimmage work. While no iron crosses or Legion of Honor badges are given to the scrubs, they have the satisfaction of knowing they helped hold a team. If the financial condition of the Colorado college athletic association would permit it, minor "T" sweaters should be given the scrubs. It would be somewhat of a recognition, at least. Several years ago this was done at the college. Other institutions do it now.

Last night Coach Rothgeb gave considerable attention to kicking practice, especially punting and catching of punts. Verner and Davis, who had been rather poor long kickers, were in fine fettle last night, both sending a number of these high, long kicks that give the end time to cover the man. Early season form in the boot department indicates that the Tigers will be much stronger than ever before for kicking, a weakness that has lost battles in the past. The handling of punts was somewhat ragged.

Mark Davis booted one punt 40 yards, far over the heads of the players waiting for it. Coach Rothgeb became enthusiastic over the kick, as well as the kicker, and shouted: "Keep that up through the season, Mark. It's great!"

In the placement kick department, Captain Kramer was thumping the leather through the posts with a monotonous regularity. Others were trying their hand, or rather, their foot, in this fascinating play. So far, the drop kick has not been attempted.

Following the kicking practice, the linemen were sent against the bucking machine. For the benefit of the uninitiated, this contrivance of war is a long padded board attached to a heavy sled. On the sled crouches the coach and his linemen face him. He snaps a ball and they hurl themselves at the sled, using both hands and shoulders. They crouched lower last night and seemed to hit harder. The backfield men did forward pass throwing under the tutelage of Captain Kramer for a half hour, Taylor and Cover hurling the big missile with amazing accuracy.

If the scrub team fails to materialize, then Rothgeb will have to huck the freshmen for his scrimmage. The Terrors also will be available for practice engagements. With the freshmen at one end of the field under the coaching of Hickox, the Terrors, east of the grandstands, under Coradell and two Tiger teams, crackling out signals and making things hum, Washburn field would be mighty lively.

The freshmen team this year is suffering from the same ailment that the scrub eleven is worrying about—not enough men are out. The men who are out are likely looking players, several of whom are well known to Colorado Springs fans, and who, in the future, will certainly fill some holes on the varsity. Eubank, tackle, and halfback; Holman, fullback; Legendum, end, and Tucker, line man, are former Terrors stars. Davis may get out this week.

The first crop of invalids on the Tiger squad has recovered, at least enough to get out and work hard. Stocks was in uniform last night and will be tried at end and half. Mack Davis was in good shape and Van Stone was showing up well.

Esmoil, at right end, is beginning to look more like a second Bowers every day. With a year's valuable experience tucked under his helmet, Esmoil looks better at end than at halfback, where he played creditably last year. He is a fierce tackler, a fairly fast runner, and he knows football. His good showing at end has relieved Rothgeb of a tough problem.

For the first time in many years the alumni game has been dropped from the C. C. schedule. Although this contest has brought many of the grads back to the campus in years past, it has never brought out much football. The alumni never are in shape and depend on individual prowess for their gains.

The early season schedule of the Tigers has been completed. The freshmen will be tackled Saturday in the eye-opener of the double-header, the other half being between the Terrors and West Denver. On October 10 the Tigers play Sacred Heart college. The first conference game will be with Utah at Salt Lake City, on October 17, and there is a vacancy between that and the Boulder game on October 31—a vacancy that will be left a vacancy.

WHAT THE PRESS AGENTS SAY

"THE TEST OF FLAME"
At the Empress today, the two-act "Domino" feature play, "The Test of Flame," will be shown. It's a story worth while, a satisfying exhibition, one that you'll remember with pleasure.

Mayer, an old New England fisherman, is passionately fond of his violin. A very valuable instrument. He plays it and thinks only of it, to the neglect of his family. His wife, a woman of delicate but, who, unconsciously, is the enemy of the violin. A young man, wandering at night by the bridge, is wandering in the brush. He is attracted to the violin. He stops and in this way meets Annie. A love affair springs up between them and they are married. The violin is the cause of the trouble.

Letter hand lock pretakes the hands and Annie sends her baby back to the care of the grandfather. He receives the child, and when she sees the place of the beloved violin, in his affection, Annie, herself, is enabled to see that, in returning home, the father sets out to meet his, leaving the child alone. A fire breaks from the explosion of the violin and the house is burned. Previously the child has taken the violin from the house and to surprise her grandfather, hides it down the porch. Mayer, and his daughter are horrified to observe the burning house. Mayer makes an attempt to rescue the child, but the smoke overpowers him, and he is found to be dead. Later when they have given up hope of seeing her, she returns from the burning house, a rescued orphan.

EVANGELINE
The Acadians
Acadia was the name given by the French to what is now Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. Discovered by the Cabots in 1497, an attempt at colonization was made in 1604, the colonists being expelled by the English. Between 1755 and 1764, some 10,000 Acadians were deported to the English colonies. These Acadians became the progenitors of the Acadians in the United States.

Don't Trifle With Your Health!

If your liver can't do its work, your blood becomes impure and many troubles follow. If your bowels are irregular, poisons accumulate in your body.

THE POEM
Longfellow began the poem of "Evangeline" in 1845. The story of its inception is as follows:
A friend of Longfellow and Hawthorne heard from a French-Canadian the story of a young couple in Acadia. They were separated at the time of the expulsion of the Acadians in 1755, and Evangeline wandered about New England all her life, searching for her lover. At last, when both were old, she found him on his deathbed. Longfellow, impressed by the tale, said to Hawthorne: "Will you please write a poem?" Hawthorne promised, and "Evangeline" was the result.

THE PICTURES
After six months' research and work and an outlay of over $40,000, the Canadian Bioscope company, limited, finished a magnificent production of "Evangeline" that will take its place among the film classics of the day.

CECIL FANNING CONCERT
Cecil Fanning, the most popular of the younger American baritone, who comes to the Burns next Friday evening is opening his season this year in the Rocky Mountain country. His first concert this fall was at Sheridan, Wyoming, on Monday of last week where he was the first attraction on the "Artists' course" offered each year by the Amphion society of that city. As many of the finest musicians have been heard in Sheridan under the auspices of the Amphion club the comment following Mr. Fanning's recital that it was "without question the most artistic ever presented to a local audience" was indeed noteworthy praise.

BIG MEXICAN OIL FIELD IS ON FIRE

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—An area approximately 15 miles in extent surrounding Aquila, one of the largest oil wells in the world, located in the Tampico, Mex. district, is a mass of smoke and flames, according to officers of the steamship Esperanza, which reached here today from Mexican ports. The well was capped down shortly after the capture of Tampico by the Constitutionalists and several months ago it was noticed that the underground pressure was causing the oil to seep up all around the well. This seepage, catching fire from lightning or some other cause, has spread the flames until now the glare, by night and the smoke by day can be seen for nearly 100 miles.

THREATENED COAL FAMINE IN PHILIPPINES AVERTED

MANILA, Sept. 28.—Years of a coal famine here through the threatened refusal of Great Britain to permit its import without guarantee against re-exportation, has been averted. Japan has instructed local merchants not to sell coal without exacting a bond for twice its value and also insists on consular inspection.

The suspicion that German vessels load here to supply warships at sea still exists. Today the steamer Elmhorn carrying 6,000 tons of coal put back from Corregidor island, having sighted a British cruiser outside. The great situation presented a similar problem. Most of the supply comes from Australia and there were threats that it would be suspended unless guarantees were given. Governor General Harrison has relieved the situation by promising that the government will guarantee that there will be no receipt of this article.

RED CROSS UNITS BEING DISTRIBUTED

LONDON, Sept. 28.—The war office today announced a Red Cross unit, directed by Dr. Howard Reed of Worcester, Mass., to the American Women's hospital near Tientsin.

Another unit directed by Dr. Robert W. Hinds of Buffalo, has been assigned to the base hospital at Nellore. The steamer Red Cross, fitted out by the American Red Cross society, will sail Wednesday from Pauillac to Pauillac, France, having unloaded all the medical supplies intended for England and Russia.

From Pauillac she will go to Rotterdam and then directly to America.

FRENCH CRUISER SUNK BY AUSTRIAN FORTS

Berlin Report Gives Other Side of Situation in the Theater of War

BERLIN, Sept. 28.—(via London).—by order of the military command of the province of Brandenburg, the Vossische Zeitung, the Berlin Democratic party, has suspended publication indefinitely.

Emperor William on Saturday visited Prince Oscar, one of his sons, who is ill with heart trouble at Metz. The Duchess of Brunswick, sister of the prince, arrived the same day and will remain with her brother until he returns to the front.

A dispatch to the Cologne Gazette from Tasso, Dalmatia, reports that the Austrian fort at Cattaro on September 19, sunk a big French warship. The fort had intercepted a wireless message concerning the movement in the direction of Cattaro of 15 warships and three destroyers. The Austrians were under the impression that the French were about to attack the fort. A salvo from the fort sank the warship and the other vessels in the fleet hastily retreated.

The official report concerning the sinking recently of the three cruisers by the German submarine U-9 in the North Sea, asserts that the U-9 was in action one hour. This was the time elapsing between the firing of the first and the last torpedo. The British cruisers, according to the report, did not fire a single shot. When attacked they were steaming abreast with the Aboukir in the middle.

A report that German vessels accompanying the submarine flew the Dutch flag was contradicted.

It is emphatically denied that any other submarines took part in the attack and that any were sunk. Several British cruisers, torpedo boats and destroyers pursued the U-9 until evening, going as far as the Feroehelling tanks where the submarine escaped under cover of night.

PEOPLE URGED TO DEVELOP DOMESTIC CHEMICAL SUPPLY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Calling attention to the dependence of the United States on Germany for its potash supply, emphasized by the European war situation, and to the fact that this country gets all its sodium nitrate from Chile, the geological survey has suggested several domestic sources of combined nitrogen. One of these, it is stated, is the gas works and by-product coke ovens which, in 1912, reported a recovery of ammoniacal liquor, ammonia and ammonium sulphate valued at $9,519,268. Another domestic supply of nitrogen compounds lies in the fixation of atmospheric nitrogen by electricity. Cheap hydroelectric development is necessary. It is stated to establish this industry, which would make our large agricultural and industrial interests free from the uncertainties of the foreign supply.

COURAGE IN WAR

What war teaches us well as business life

Courage in war of business is born of good, pure blood. Pure blood is the greatest blessing mankind can have. Millions of people need this powerful, stomachic, liver and kidney tonic, that cleans the skin of pimples, rash, blemishes and eczema; that dissolves boils and carbuncles; that makes nerves stronger and steadier and gives to pale, weak, rundown people the fullest measure of health and happiness.

The suspicion that German vessels load here to supply warships at sea still exists. Today the steamer Elmhorn carrying 6,000 tons of coal put back from Corregidor island, having sighted a British cruiser outside. The great situation presented a similar problem. Most of the supply comes from Australia and there were threats that it would be suspended unless guarantees were given. Governor General Harrison has relieved the situation by promising that the government will guarantee that there will be no receipt of this article.

CROWN PRINCE LOST WAR FOR GERMANS, SAYS CORRESPONDENT

LONDON, Sept. 28.—(via A. M.)—A Sevenne dispatch to the Daily Telegraph dated September 21, says: "The first German army to be thoroughly whipped on French soil was that of the crown prince. He lost saved Paris."

"At the time of their victory the French did not know the extent of the damage they had inflicted on the enemy. Actually, they had smashed the flower of the German military power. General von Kluck's misfortune was due directly to the rout of the crown prince's left wing on the night of September 6. It actually retreated 24 miles in that night."

"In the plan of the German operations the path that promised the greatest glory was reserved for the crown prince, but the French army opposed him with splendid strategy. In the retreat they fought stubbornly over every inch of the ground and when the time came for the offensive they assumed it in the most effective manner."

Describes the Battle.
Describing the battle on September 6 the correspondent says: "The battle began at daybreak and continued until dusk. The artillery fire exceeded anything in history. The shells were timed as falling 30 to 35 seconds. The losses, especially to the Germans, were enormous. One estimate by trained observers places as high as 100,000 German casualties, of which 30,000 were killed."

"It must be remembered that the battle front extended for nearly 40 miles. It was largely of marsh lands and here the enemy suffered most."

"The French also suffered heavily. One corps was entirely wiped out. When night came neither side could claim much advantage in position gained and a tremendous quantity of ammunition had been expended."

The Mysterious Retreat

"Then on the night of the sixth and seventh came the mysterious German retreat. Various theories were advanced to explain it, first there may have been a sortie from Verdun; such an operation while the main force was heavily engaged would bring havoc to any army. Second, the army transport service may have broken down. Third, the enormous expenditure of ammunition might have compelled the crown prince's army to fall back or be captured."

"Of course the fighting on this wing continued for several days, but the Germans were only trying to save what was left of the badly crippled army from complete destruction."

"With the crown prince retreating there was nothing left but for General von Kluck's and General von Buelow's armies to execute the same maneuver. This brought about the battle of the Marne, and all subsequent fighting, and the rumor persists that the crown prince was wounded, whether that is so or not, his army almost disappeared from the theater of operations."

BRITISH GUARD IS IMPORTANT ARM OF FORCES IN FRANCE

LONDON, Eng., September 28.—The Daily Mail's correspondent in France pays a warm tribute to the excellent work which has been done by the British guard regiments who generally have been supposed to be kept only "for show purposes." He says they have done more fighting than any other of the units of the British expeditionary forces.

"In the recent crossing of the Aisne they achieved a glorious feat of arms," continues the correspondent. "They were allowed to cross by a pontoon bridge without any opposition but no sooner had our cavalry, headed by the Scots Greys, begun crossing than a rain of shrapnel burst upon them from nowhere. Those who were not killed outright were drowned."

"A stretch of open country a quarter of a mile long lay immediately ahead of the guard, then a wood leading up to the heights somewhere along or behind which the death-dealing German guns lay. The order was given to advance, but though the gallant troops escaped the crowning misfortune of falling upon the barbed wire, as was to be feared, they were received by a murderous machine gun fire. On approaching the cover the guards fixed bayonets and charged. They took these guns in five minutes, six of them, and tonight they are in the British lines."

"The charge created a necessary version, allowing our heavy artillery in turn to enter the lists. Not until the pontoon bridge had twice more been destroyed, however, were the German lines shattered. Thanks to the admirable reconnoitering work of two aviators, the crossing of the Aisne was then concluded in comparative immunity from shell fire."

"That night the awards got their just due of congratulation."

Blood Remedy Sustains Weak

My.eds Have Learned of Its Remarkable Curative Value.

From the very fact that S. S. S. the famous blood purifier is a natural cure, it is opposed by those who can give up mercury and other dangerous drugs. Hence it is a strange wonder that people use mercury with blind force of habit. Not warned by the thousands they see all around them, unimpaired of the locomotor ataxia, paralysis and other deadly results of mercury poisoning, they cling to the fact that purifying treatment so surely and positively being replaced by S. S. S., where the light strikes in. S. S. S. is fast becoming the world's panacea for all blood poisoning because it is welcome to a weak stomach, is taken naturally into the blood, is a wave of purifying influence known by its remarkable curative results and is the standard of a host of people going into the blood and removing a strong medicinal influence to the red and thus without any other effect than that of a purely purifying process.

It is the most universally recommended blood remedy known and has sustained its reputation for half a century. Its ingredients are Nature's own antidotes for growth that create no harmful effects. It is a blood purifier, a blood tonic, a blood builder, a blood cleanser. Write the medical department, The Swift Specific Co., 62 West Pk., Atlanta, Ga., for free advice on blood troubles and to receive this medicine. ## U. S. Will Develop Aviation Service in Army at Once

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Sensational use of aircraft in the great European war has added interest today to steps ordered by the war department to carry out at once the provisions of the act of last July to increase the efficiency of the aviation service of the army. A general order invites unmarried lieutenants on the line of the army under 30 years of age to apply for detail to this extraordinary service, which will entitle them to a 50 per cent increase in salary.

Other orders looking to the immediate enlargement of the aviation corps and the acquisition of additional aeroplanes are expected to be published very soon.

BELGIANS AND GERMANS ENGAGED IN SERIOUS CLASH

PARIS, September 28.—A dispatch to the Petit Parisien from Amsterdam says violent fighting has occurred between the Germans and Belgians at Schooten, four miles east of Antwerp; at Termonde, 16 miles east of Ghent; and at Houtendaele, 18 miles east of Ghent. In the latter locality the heavy artillery became stuck in the mud and the Germans were obliged to retire before the attacks of the Belgians.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE ON LONDON SOARS

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—By reason of its important bearing on the international money market, today's violent rise in foreign exchange on London overshadowed all other financial developments. Cables rose 5.02 and demand sold at 5.01, each representing a gain of three cents per pound sterling over Saturday and restoring the rate to the highest quotations for the remittance since the latter part of August. The advance was occasioned largely by an increased demand for London bills by persons having large obligations to discharge abroad early in October, when many 90-day bills expire. It was the general expectation that these maturities would be met by new grain and cotton bills, but the supply of the latter has been especially small because of the embargo on exports of that staple. Moreover, the $100,000,000 gold pool was counted on to relieve the exchange situation. But delay in the consummation of that project has added to the general confusion of the market. Apart from the flurry in foreign exchange, which reacted slightly later, most of the day's news was of a constructive character. Business in the western states holds steady, as indicated by traffic returns. A significant development in the middle west is the canner (one of the money market).

CHICAGO MARKET

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Rumors of an ultimatum from Russia to Turkey had considerable to do today with causing an advance in the price of wheat. Closing quotations were steady at 1 1/4, above Saturday night. Corn suffered a net decline of 1/4 to 1/2¢, but oats finished with a gain of 1/4¢.

It provisions the outcome varied from unchanged figures to a rise of 1/4¢. According to unconfirmed reports, Russia's demand was that Turkey must either disarm or fight. As the entrance of Turkey into the European war might involve Italy and all the Balkan states, many wheat speculators made haste to cover, forcing an upward and higher market in wheat. Some expert buying, together with prospects of a sharp fall in the primary receipts, gave additional help to the bulk. Advances from both wheat and corn were indicated that a majority of farmers were holding out for higher prices. Fine weather for maturing corn made the market for that cereal relatively weak. A good deal of buying was done, however, in sympathy with the strength of wheat. Data hardened, owing to gossip of big export sales. On the other hand, there were signs of freer offering from the country. Packers buying helped to lift provisions. An advance in the hog market also was a distant aid. Quotations furnished by C. & C. ## KERN'S FOUR LIVER HEALTHY ACTIVE CLEANSE YOUR SYSTEM THOROUGHLY

A man in Kentucky just told a friend that Foley's Cathartic Tablets were the most wonderful medicine he had ever used. He said he had been suffering from constipation for years and that he had tried everything else but Foley's. He said he felt like a new man after using it. He said he had never felt so healthy and active before. He said he had never felt so clean and fresh before. He said he had never felt so good before. He said he had never felt so well before.
